

CERTAIN THAT CONGER WAS ALIVE JULY 18

Dispatch to That Effect Received From Him by Secretary Hay.

MINISTER WU GETS THE GLAD TIDINGS

Cipher Message This Morning From Peking Says the British Legation Is Under Continued Fire and Prompt Relief Only Will Prevent a General Massacre—Presumption Is That All of the Foreigners Except Von Koettler Are Still Alive—Allied Armies Will Force Their Way to Peking.

Washington, July 20.—[Special Telegram]—The Chinese Minister Wu brought a dispatch from Minister Conger to the State department at ten fifteen o'clock this morning. It comes from Peking through Tao Ti, the governor of Shanghai and is in cipher. It is dated July 18, and Mr. Conger says he is safe up to that time.

Minister Conger's Reply

The following is Minister Conger's dispatch:

"The British legation is under continued shot and shell from the Chinese troops. Quick relief only can prevent a serious massacre."

On July 11 the secretary of state communicated a brief message asking for tidings of Minister Conger in the state department's code. Minister Wu undertook to get this to Conger's hands if alive. He succeeded.

Was Alive on July 18

This morning the secretary of state received a telegram from the consul general of Shanghai saying:

"The governor of Shantung informs me that he has sent you today a cipher message from Conger of July 18."

A few minutes later Minister Wu appeared at the state department with a telegram from Tao Ti at Shanghai dated July 20, which had been received by Minister Wu at 8.30 o'clock this morning.

It Was in the Cipher

The dispatch reads as follows:

"Your telegram was forwarded as requested. I send you a reply of the Tseung Li Yamen as follows: 'Your telegram of fifteenth day this month, (11th July), received and the secretary of state's telegram has been handed to Minister Conger. Herewith Minister Conger's reply to the secretary of state, which please forward.'

The reply followed as given above. It was in the state department's cipher.

Confirmed in London

London, July 20.—[Special Cablegram]—The Chinese minister has just received a dispatch from his government confirming Conger's message that the foreigners in Peking were safe July 18. The minister added that his government had succeeded in affording the legations adequate protection.

Sixty Missionaries Murdered.

Shanghai, July 20.—[Special Cablegram]—It is reported that sixty missionaries have been murdered at Tai Yuan Fu south of Peking in the province of Shansi.

All Alive July 11.

Washington, July 20.—[Special Telegram]—The Secretary of State received a dispatch from Consul General Fowler at Chefoo dated at midnight July 19 which says that the Shanghai papers of July 16 stated that all the foreigners in Peking had been massacred. Fowler wired Gov. Shantung demanding to know the truth. The governor replied that his courier had left Peking on July 11 and that the ministers then were alive but that Peking (east city) had been broken into with intent to kill by the rebels.

Viceroy Summoned to Peking.

Hong Kong, July 20.—[Special Cablegram]—It is learned that the viceroy have been summoned to Peking because the imperial authorities want money, they only having power to use revenues. It is believed that Prince Tuan will offer to compensate for the murders and assist on a closed door.

Hideous Treatment by Boxers

London, July 20.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Express cables:

"A Chinese merchant who has just arrived from Peking gives horrible details of the massacre. He says he saw European women hauled into the street by shrieking Boxers, who stripped them and hacked them to pieces. Their dismembered limbs were tossed to the crowd and carried off with howls of triumph. Some were already dead having been shot by foreign civilians."

"He says he saw Chinese soldiers carrying the bodies of white children aloft on their spears, while their companions shot at the bodies. He gives other details too horrible to be particularized here."

Russians Fighting Hard

London, July 20.—The Daily Express publishes the following from Che Foo, dated yesterday:

"The Russians are hard pressed around Nin Chwang, and have been expelled from Tien Chwang Tai, the scene of the great fight during the Sino-Japanese war, where they have sustained heavy losses."

"They have also been compelled to abandon Tashichau by a large body of Boxers and armed peasants. Here again the Russians lost heavily, but it is reported that they succeeded in killing 700 of their assailants."

"The Chinese have completely demolished the railway north of Tashichau. The Russians are now moving on Nin Chwang."

Date of Message in Doubt.

Washington, July 20.—[Special Telegram]—The only intimation as to when Conger sent his dispatch is Gov. Shantung's statement to Consul Goodnow that the dispatch from Conger dated the eighteenth had been sent. There is no date in the body of the message from Tseung Li Yamen to indicate when the dispatch from Hay was handed to Conger or when the American minister sent his reply. That it was written on the eighteenth rests upon the word of the Chinese officials. Hay has absolute confidence it is genuine as have also Long and Root.

Remedy Urged to Hurry

Secretary Long has sent the following to Admiral Remey at Che Foo: "Conger telegraphs that he is in British legation under fire from Chinese troops and that quick relief only can prevent general massacre. Use and urge every possible endeavor for relief."

CITY OF PEKING.

Peking (meaning literally the northern capital) was founded 1,000 years before the Christian era, and until the fourth century was a department capital. Its ancient name was Ki.

In 1261 it was rebuilt and was used as a capital by the Mongol emperors. The capital of the Ming dynasty was removed from Nanking to Peking, which was rebuilt. Its walls were completed in 1437, and the walls of the Chinese or southern city in 1544.

The population of Peking is variously estimated from 500,000 to 1,000,000, but the most reliable estimates more closely approach the latter figure.

Peking consists of three cities: the Tartar city on the north, the imperial city (within the Tartar city) and the Chinese city on the south. Each of these divisions is surrounded by walls about four feet high, twenty-five feet thick at the base and twelve feet across the top.

Enclosed between walls in the imperial city is the forbidden city, the residence of the emperor.

The Pei-Ho river passes the doors of Peking, which is situated 100 miles from the Tartar frontier. The length of the capital, north to south, is 5.2 miles and the average width is about 4 miles. Superficial area, 21.5 square miles.

There are no waterworks in Peking. The supply is obtained from wells, which are no means pure. The old sewerage system has been allowed to fall into decay.

Crossing the city from side to side are several large avenues from which run narrow alleys framed by private dwellings. The streets are filthy. There are no sanitary arrangements or other devices for public comfort.

Trade and industry in the Chinese capital are unimportant and even insignificant. The chief route for traffic is by the river to Tung Chow, twelve miles away. Carts or coolies are used for transportation and the trade from the south and west is carried on by camels.

No tax is levied on land, houses or personal property in the city of Peking. Land tax, however, is paid by districts surrounding the city. The amount varies, according to the richness of the land.

TO OPPOSE PARTITION OF CHINA

Policy of the United States Government in This Crisis

Washington, July 20.—As a result of the cabinet meetings held Tuesday and today, the policy of the United States concerning the great world crisis in China is fully and definitely decided upon. The substance of this policy is as follows:

1. The United States will under no circumstances join in the partition of China among the powers.
2. The United States will use all its influence, to the utmost extent, short of war with European nations, to prevent the dismemberment of the Chinese Empire.
3. The United States proposes to have a voice in the settlement of the Chinese trouble, and its voice will ever be raised against spoliation and in favor of preservation of China's territorial and governmental unity, along the lines set forth in Secretary Hay's note to the powers dated July 3.
4. The United States will not declare war upon China on the present showing of facts, no matter what other powers may do.
5. The United States, acting independently and for itself, will cooperate with the other powers in restoring order in China, in punishing officials, high or low, found guilty of crimes against human life, in setting up a stable government that may give guarantees of security of life and property and freedom of trade.

Upon these grounds the president and his cabinet have taken their stand. They intend to stay. They have fully resolved to resist all temptations to be led into any other course. Secretary Hay had taken the lead in outlining this policy in his identical note to the European governments dated July 3.

RED SHIRTS MOVE IN NORTH CAROLINA

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN TO DISFRANCHISE NEGROES.

Emblem of the League Having for Its Avowed Purpose the Elimination of the Negro Vote in a Flaming Red Flannel Shirt—The Entire State Is Aroused.

Hamlet, N. C., July 20.—The red-shirt movement was formally inaugurated at a political rally at Lumberton, where the democratic candidate for governor, Charles B. Aycock, and other speakers roused the 6,000 people present to a high state of excitement by declaring that this is a white man's state and that the negroes shall be disfranchised.

The meeting was one of the most significant ever held in the Carolinas. Men, women and children came miles to hear the speakers, and the predominant color in the crowd were red and white, one indicating that white supremacy shall reign in North Carolina and the other the black man may expect to fight if he is going to have any hand in dominating the affairs of the state.

Escort of 500 "Red Shirts."

Just before the train of the gubernatorial candidate reached Lumberton it was boarded by 500 men, all wearing crimson-hued shirts and white linen trousers. The carriage in which Aycock drove from the station was decorated in these colors. The rapid fire gun used in the Wilmington riot and an old cannon were also pressed into service. With these facilities the day was made to resemble a Fourth of July.

The speech of Mr. Aycock was devoted entirely to the question of negro suffrage. He did not refer to any national issue or even to Mr. Bryan. He declared that it was absolutely necessary to the peace and happiness of North Carolina to the eliminate the negro as a factor in politics.

Must Eliminate the Negro.

The democrats, he argued, should be bold and fearless in handling this question, and should do only what they could find the law justified them in doing.

"If the republicans," should carry out their threat to make wholesale arrests of election registers, I will personally see to it that the election officers are protected," Aycock added that he had never seen the people of the north state so thoroughly worked up on any subject as they are now on this.

CAPE TRIBESMEN GIVE A CONCERT

Monona Lake Assembly Devotes a Day to South Africa—State Sunday School Society.

Madison, Wis., July 20.—Over 1,000 persons are now in tents at the Monona Lake assembly and the number is increasing fast. The feature of yesterday's program was a concert by five South African boys, representing the Kaffir, Zulu, Basuto, Mashona and Matabele tribes, and a talk on the Boers by Miss Elsie Clark whose parents live in the northern part of Rhodesia. She pleaded the cause of the British in South Africa and received much applause.

Yesterday morning Leon H. Vincent lectured on Benjamin Franklin and this evening Rev. Samuel Parks Gadsden on "Life in London." Mrs. W. H. Upham of Marshfield, wife of the ex-governor arrived today to assume charge of the W. C. T. U. work.

The State Sunday School association elected the following officers: President, O. C. Willett, Elkhorn; first vice president, Rev. J. C. Ingraham, Milwaukee; second vice president, J. T. Wright, Janesville; secretary, Rev. E. A. Potter, Mukwonago; treasurer, J. F. Bickel, Racine.

SETTLERS IN DREAD OF THE REDSKINS

Protest Against Withdrawing Troops From Arizona—Minnesota Militia Able to Keep Order.

Clifton, Ariz., July 20.—Orders have been received to put in readiness for leaving six troops of the Ninth cavalry (colored), which are garrisoned at Forts Grant, Huachuca and San Carlos, established to protect settlers in the several Apache regions of Arizona. The negro troops will be relieved by four troops of the Fifth cavalry at Jefferson barracks, Missouri.

The action will likely call for a strong protest from the settlers, who claim they would be left unprotected from sanguinary Indians if the changes are made. According to orders received the six companies will go to San Francisco, probably the last of the month.

St. Paul, Minn., July 20.—Governor John Lind, in reporting to the war department the militia strength of Minnesota, today notified the federal government that the force was amply sufficient to protect the settlers from the Indians, who were reported as being restless in the northern part of the state, in case there was any need for the regular troops in China or elsewhere.

Wisconsin Lumbermen in Mexico.

Mexica City, July 20.—A number of Wisconsin lumbermen are now looking over the lumber resources of this country.

U. S. NAVY YARDS HAVE CLOSE CALL

Serious Fire Threatened the Naval Works at Boston This Morning.

LOSS IS OVER $100,000

The Constitution, Olympia and Other Famous Ships Endangered by Flames.

VALUABLE WAR RELICS BURN

Boston, July 20.—[Special Telegram]—A fire broke out in the north end of the navy yard reservation in Charlestown at midnight, and in a few minutes had grown to such proportions that it threatened every building in the grounds and the several ships tied up at the wharves, including the Constitution, the Olympia, and several less famous.

Hurry calls were sent out to the Boston fire department, the yard force being unable to cope with the flames, and three alarms on the Boston circuit were quickly rung in.

The fire started in one of the two spar-houses and quickly jumped across to the other. These were destroyed, together with one bathhouse.

Valuable Property Burned.

In the sparhouse were burned about forty boats of all kinds, which belonged to the ships at the yards undergoing repairs, including the Olympia, and a great quantity of ship timbers and various spars used in fitting out vessels.

By 1 o'clock the firemen had succeeded in saving the officers' quarters, and so prevented the further spread of the flames. Admiral Sampson and all the others present agreed that the other buildings and ships had had a narrow escape as most of the buildings are very old and would have burned like match-wood had they once caught. The loss will exceed $100,000.

Among the boats burned was the launch used by Admiral Dewey in Manila Bay and another still more valuable, though only as a relic; this was the long boat in which the defeated officers were taken off the Alabama after the memorable fight between that ship and the Kearsarge off the coast of France in 1863.

BRYAN'S VIEWS ON CHINESE QUESTION

He Has No Doubt McKinley Will Protect the Lives and Property of Americans in China.

Lincoln, Neb., July 20.—[Special Telegram]—William J. Bryan gave out an unofficial statement in the Chinese question, saying he has no doubt the administration will protect the lives and property of Americans in China, and if it was found the Chinese government had not acted in good faith congress has the power to deal with the matter. It will be better to have it known we seek trade only. It is better for the missionaries to have it known that they are preaching gospel love only.

WILL NOT WITHDRAW TROOPS

Secretary Root Says Soldiers May Stay in Cuba Another Year

Washington, July 20.—Despite the report that it was decided at yesterday's cabinet meeting to withdraw troops and place Cuba on a footing of practical self-government within six or eight months, Secretary of War Root denies that this matter had even been discussed. Secretary Root said:

"No such plan has been decided upon as yet. The Cuban elections and the constitutional convention are approaching and much will depend on what is done then. The convention will be held no sooner than Nov. and it may be later. Its work will largely influence subsequent action. Troops will be kept in Cuba until late in the fall and perhaps another year."

WHEELER ANXIOUS TO GO TO CHINA

Brave Warrior Wants to Fight the Boxers.

He Would Get a Chance But for His Great Age—He Must Be Retired Very Soon—Gen. Miles and Others Eager to Go—The Allies Need a Chief.

Chicago, July 20.—General Joseph Wheeler, commander of the department of the Lakes, has asked the war department to assign him to duty in China. No action has been taken as yet upon the application.

It is said that the president would not hesitate an instant to assign General Wheeler to China were it not for his advanced age. Army officers in Washington are unreserved in their expressions of admiration for the veteran of many wars.

Should General Wheeler be detailed to duty in China he would hold the champion war record of the United States, if not of the world. At present he is the veteran of three wars, the civil, the Spanish and the Philippine. It is the opinion of Washington officials that he will not be given duty in China, as the president has no authority to appoint for service men on the retired list, and General Wheeler will be on that list after September 1.

Washington, D. C., July 20.—Secretary Root also received today a request from General Miles' friends that he be detailed to duty in China. Most army officers favor the proposition, and Gen. Miles himself is understood to be anxious for the assignment, provided, of course, his detail would carry with it the assurance of an appropriate command.

Allies Need a Chief

The state department has information of a controversy between the military commanders at Taku and Tien Tsin. The failure to select a commander-in-chief of the allied forces is destined to result in confusion and disaster, army officers believe. They insist that the delay in securing a responsible head of the military force whose word shall be supreme is critical.

General Miles will not be detailed, however, unless it can be arranged that upon him will fall the chief command. The reason for this would be the willingness of the foreign allies of this country to trust the American officer whose government is not concerned in the jealousies of the Chinese situation.

Chaffee a Major General.

General Chaffee was today made a Major General, and three other general officers will probably be assigned to duty in China as brigade commanders. There will be three brigades, one cavalry and two infantry and a battery of artillery.

Dr. Senn Wants to Go.

Dr. Nicholas Senn is in Denver awaiting a reply from the War department to his telegram volunteering his services to the United States government as surgeon in the Chinese war. Dr. Senn takes an optimistic view of the situation in China looking from the standpoint of a physician and surgeon. He said that the experience gained by the army in the Cuban campaign had been of inestimable value and would prevent a repetition of many blunders.

DEAD CHILD IN A SATCHEL

Ghostly Package Left by Stranger in a Milwaukee Drug Store

Milwaukee, July 20.—A ghostly find was made by one of the clerks of the Spiegel drug store last night. Last Monday a stranger left a satchel in the store promising to call for it in a short time. Yesterday it was noticed that a stench was arising from the satchel, and on opening it the drug people found the body of a child wrapped in a towel and a newspaper.

The infant was three months old and had been dead about a week. The police have been unable to make any progress on the case.

BIG TOBACCO CROP IN CUBA CERTAIN

CLEAR HAVANA CIGARS WILL SOON BE COMMON STOCK.

Dealers in Cuban Brands Say Users of the Weed Soon Can Procure the Best Havana Qualities for the Price of Domestic Goods—Better Cigars at Popular Prices.

All classes of smokers may soon be pulling away at Havana cigars, says the Chicago Record. Tobacco dealers say it will be a smoker's dream of a clear Havana for a nickel. The cause is the abundant crop of tobacco being put forth by Cuba this year. It is the largest known since the beginning of the revolution, and one of the largest in the history of the country.

Chicago, the greatest distributing center of clear Havana cigars in the United States, is largely represented on the field in Cuba to take advantage of the tremendous output and make purchases at low prices. The shipments to Chicago this fall it is said, will be the largest on record.

Manufacturers Purchase in Person
Joseph Mendelssohn of the Sutter Bros. Tobacco company has been to Havana in person to look after the proposed purchases for his firm. He returned recently and is enthusiastic over the outlook. He said:

"Not only will the crop in Cuba be enormous but the tobacco will be of exceptionally fine grade. Although the packing of the crop is not yet completed a number of local manufacturers are already preparing to make heavy investments. Chicago takes kindly to the highest grades of tobacco and more Havana cigars will be made here this year than ever before. I do not think that the big Cuban crop will have any effect on the tobacco output of this country. The demand for the domestic cigar will be as great as ever, because this is a distinct class of goods."

Exhausted Brands Resurrected.
A number of famous brands of cigars that have been extinct for several years are being resurrected and again placed on the market. Manufacturing them was stopped because it was impossible to get the proper grades of tobacco. A correspondent from Havana writes that because of the extensive yield the tobacco crops in some instances will not meet the cost of production. Many planters are disheartened.

J. B. Moos said:
"The immediate effect of Cuba's great tobacco crop will be to give the people better cigars than they have ever had before at popular prices. It will take more than one large crop to have any effect on the tobacco output of this country. Havana tobacco has been very scarce, and there is no surplus this year. For four or five years Cuba has had but one-fifth of the normal crop. The markets have become almost denuded of genuine Havana tobacco. As far as the tobacco of the Philippines and Porto Rico are concerned, they will cut no figure whatever in the American market as long as the present rate of duty prevails."

MISS WILLIAMS WON THE MID IRON PRIZE

Women Play Golf Who Had Never Played in a Match Game—Schedule of Future Events.

The golf match for ladies that had never played in a game took place yesterday afternoon on the Buckleton links, Miss E. Louise Williams winning the prize, a beautiful mid iron given by Mrs. H. G. Carter. The match was six holes medal play, Miss Williams handing in a score of 85 which won the trophy. The following ladies took part in the match, Mesdames F. P. Stevens, Mary Crosby, W. T. Vankirk, Wilson Lane, H. G. Carter and Miss E. Louise Williams. Considering that none of the ladies had ever taken part in a match, they were very well pleased with the outcome. The rules governing the game were strictly adhered to and a score keeper went with each pair to see that none of the rules were violated. A great deal of credit is due the ladies who kept score for the able manner in which they performed their duties under very trying circumstances. The following ladies kept score, Mrs. B. F. Dunwiddie, Mrs. J. P. Baker and Miss Muldimore.

J. P. Baker has offered a prize of a golf club to the lady novices of the club and the match will come off Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. All the lady members who have never taken part in a match are invited to take part in this event.

LABOR BODIES MAY UNITE

Amalgamation of the American and Western Federations Proposed.

Denver, Col., July 20.—Amalgamation of the American Federation of Labor and the Western Federation of Labor is proposed. The matter was the subject of discussion today at the meeting of the executive committee of the American Federation. The Western Federation's membership is approximately 80,000 men. It was organized in 1897 when the western States withdrew from the American Federation of Labor because they were denied what they regarded as proper representation on the executive committee.

CHAS. H. EVENSON WINS SUCCESS

Wisconsin Druggists Exchange Prints a Sketch of a Well Known Janesville Man.

The Wisconsin Druggists Exchange says: Charles Evenson of Baraboo, is one of the progressive pharmacists of Wisconsin. Born in Janesville, Wis., in 1860, he attended the schools of that city, then entered the employ of Prentice & Evenson, a firm who were well known through their state for their fine goods and careful management. After serving his apprenticeship, he went to Chicago and attended the College of Pharmacy, from which he graduated in 1885, taking the examination and receiving licentiate certificate No. 1156. In 1890 he removed to Baraboo and engaged in the drug business, and now has a nice pharmacy and splendid business. Mr. Evenson has given his personal attention to his work, and by this close attention, combined with good business tact he has built up a trade that he can feel proud of.

WILL BE RE-ELECTED

WHY MCKINLEY WILL WIN NEXT NOVEMBER.

Because He Represents Patriotism and Progress and Stands For the Material Interests of the People of the United States.

President McKinley will win in the coming presidential election because his candidacy is in accordance with the spirit of American institutions and of American progress and also because he represents the material interests of the American people.

The Democracy is on the wrong side. It is on the unprofitable side, and it is on the untruthful side.

There is not one of the main issues presented by the Democracy upon which it ought to win, and there is no better proof of this than the fact that it does not state any one of these issues fairly, clearly and honestly.

What a tissue of fraud and misrepresentation is the cry of "imperialism." There is no imperialism in this republic. The Republican administration is working out the problems which have been brought before it with rare skill and success. The difficulties are great, the dangers many, but the failures are few. In the great majority of cases it is doing not only the right thing, but the only thing possible under the circumstances.

And under the general title of "imperialism" there is a lot of minor issues upon which the attitude of the Democracy is just as unreasonable and just as insincere as upon the main point. What utter folly to exalt Aguinaldo as a patriot, what ignorance to claim that the Filipino "nation" is fighting for its liberty, what a disregard for facts in denouncing the civil government of Porto Rico as an injustice and a cruelty to that island! What demagoguery there is in picking up every trivial shortcoming of administration, the small amount of spoiled supplies, the defalcation of a postoffice subordinate in Cuba, the rash act of some lieutenant in Luzon, and making these the basis for an attack upon the character and the honor of the American war department or the people of this country!

In the attitude of the Democratic party toward the trusts the same insincerity is apparent. They are fertile in wholesale denunciation and threats, but they propose nothing that is practicable and that would stand the test of court decisions. The careless citizen who would take their invectives at face value might suppose that Democratic success would be followed by the banishment of "trusts" from the land if he did not stop to think that such a wholesale revolution of economic conditions and methods is impossible, and if it were possible it would be destructive and calamitous beyond measure. But Democratic speeches and platforms are not intended for the voters who stop to think.

The attitude of the Democratic party on financial matters is absolutely insincere. The members of the party are greatly at variance upon this important matter, and it is impossible for them to present a coherent and honest policy. To the west they must present a silver shield with a steady disregard of facts and possibilities. To the east the silver side must be carefully concealed, while at the same time the Populists must be conciliated with a tolerance of their fantastic theories of an irredeemable paper currency and the uselessness of metallic money of any kind.

To a far greater extent than usual this year's election is going to be a test of the good sense, the intelligence and the shrewdness of the American people.

There is not a fair minded, honest and intelligent jury in the world but would decide, upon a truthful presentation of the facts, that the interests of the American people require the continuance of the Republican party in power.

The vast body of voters who will cast their ballots next November is such a jury, and there is no danger that it will be misled by the efforts of Democratic conventions, speakers or newspapers to beguile its mind and to misstate the facts as they exist.

And that is why President McKinley will be re-elected.—Colorado Springs Gazette.

Prices of Cotton.

LISCUM AT SAN JUAN.

Bravery of the Ninth Regiment's Colonel in Cuba.

Dr. W. E. Parker of New Orleans, who was surgeon of the Fifth army corps during the Spanish-American war and who was in charge of the hospital tent at the battle of San Juan Hill, recently told the following story illustrative of the great personal courage and high character of Colonel Emerson H. Liscum of the Ninth infantry, who was killed in action at Tien-tsin, says the New York Herald:

"I knew Colonel Liscum," said Dr. Parker, "under circumstances that impressed me with his manliness and unselfishness. The storming of San Juan Hill was fraught with work for the surgeon. I was in charge of the hospital tent during and after the battle—it was on July 1, 1898—and the whole place was crowded with the wounded. As the battle raged litters continued to arrive.

"On one of the litters was Colonel Liscum, bandaged about the chest. The wound had been roughly dressed on the field, but the surgeons at once sought him to make a thorough examination and lend such further aid as was possible. He waved them off and said: 'I am feeling pretty comfortable. Get to work on some of the boys who are hard hit.'

"He refused to allow his own wounds to be cared for until every other wounded man had been attended to. It was the act of a soldier and impressed me greatly."

TO TEACH INDIANS TO VOTE.

Captain Allison, Former Scout, Wants to Give Them Political Instruction.

During the next four months, according to a Yankton (S. D.) dispatch to the New York Journal, the Sioux Indians on the reservations in South Dakota are to receive their first instructions in civics if Captain E. H. Allison has his way about it. Captain Allison is a member of the Uncpappah tribe of Sioux Indians, having been adopted by that tribe in 1866, and he married the Sioux Princess Siuawan, daughter of Sacred Bear, who was for years head chief of the tribe.

Captain Allison has lived among the Sioux Indians nearly all his life, and he speaks the Indian language as fluently as he speaks the English. He was chief of the scouts for General Sheridan for several years and was chief scout and interpreter for General Otis in the western country for 10 or 15 years. It was he who, after the Custer massacre on the Little Big Horn, went to Canada to induce Sitting Bull and his band, who had fled thither, to return to the United States, and he was in charge of the command which took Sitting Bull to Fort Randall.

"Few of the Sioux Indians have ever participated in a presidential campaign," said Captain Allison the other day. "In fact, but few of them can be said to have a political opinion. It is my purpose to go out on all the reservations west of the Missouri and hold meetings wherever a dozen or more Indians can be gathered together. This work will take three or four months. I shall give them elementary lessons in civic duties and shall try to show them what it means for them to be citizens of the United States. I shall explain why it is necessary to have elections, polling places and laws governing such things. I shall have blank ballots and conduct mock elections in order to give these new citizens of ours a concrete idea of election methods."

NEW PRIZE AT YALE.

Founded in Greek Philosophy—Professor Cook Presents $500 For It.

Professor Albert S. Cook of the English department of Yale has presented the university with $500 to found a prize in Greek philosophy. It is to be awarded annually, provided, of course, that the standard of the subjects submitted in the annual competition is as high as the judges regard desirable. The prize is open to members of all departments of the university. The candidates will be examined in the metaphysics and organon of Aristotle and will be required to submit a thesis upon some topic drawn from those works. Professor Cook's main object in awarding the prize is to establish a sound interest in and knowledge of the masterpieces of Greek philosophy.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1374—Cretaceous period; 1374.

1824—Caroline Anne Southey, poet and novelist, widow of the laureate, died; born 1787.
1866—Austria-Italian naval battle of Lissa.
1870—Beginning of the Franco-Prussian war.
French troops marched to the frontier, and Napoleon's declaration of war was issued and acted upon in Berlin. The war grew out of dispute over the succession to the throne of Spain.
1887—Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., the novelist, died in Hyde Park, Mass.; born in Waterville, Me., 1822.
1893—General John G. Walker, a veteran of the regular army and of the Confederacy, died in Washington; born 1829.
1897—Jean Ingelow, British poet and novelist, died in London; born 1820.
1899—President McKinley accepted the resignation of R. A. Alger as secretary of war.

Exports to Porto Rico in May have more than doubled as compared with the preceding May, and imports from the island have nearly doubled. Exports to the island from the United States in May, 1900, were $696,479. The imports into the United States from the island in May, 1899, were $647,179, and in May, 1900, $1,103,867. The May commerce with Porto Rico shows a much greater increase than is the case with any of the other islands. With Cuba the commerce of May differed little from that of May, 1899, and this was also the case with the Hawaiian islands, while in the Philippine islands the imports show no increase, though the exports show a remarkable gain.

Up to the hour of going to press the voice of no Edward Atkinson has been raised in the bitter and just denunciation of the unswerving and despotic imperialism practiced by the Hon. W. J. Bryan, ruler, absolute, of all the modern day democrats in the United.

Catholic Citizen—"He is the James G. Blaine of the west and if we were to pick the citizen of Wisconsin who would have the best chance one day to become the president of the United States, we should name Robert M. La Follette."

James Creelman, the "war correspondent," is on his way to China. The powers should be informed of this fact, and suspend operations until Mr. Creelman arrives. Otherwise he's likely to issue a 'round robin.

The "wrecked" Oregon, it now develops, can be used immediately, only "temporary repairs" being necessary. Great is the correspondent—from some points of view.

Chief Kiple of Chicago, evidently believes that the man who shields a law-breaker is equally guilty, regardless of whether or not there is a policeman in the woodpile.

The Catholic Citizen's praise of La Follette gives the lie to the statement that the ghost of the Bennett law is abroad in the land.

However, more than one moving picture outfit will be necessary if a complete record of Gov. Roosevelt's action is to be kept.

The Chinese news appears to be much like a good deal of the other "genuine imported china"—a rick imitation.

A little Boer war news occasionally breaks through the Chinese wall, but finds itself printed on the last page.

General Woods' report on Cuba is interesting. Evidently the Cubans are learning rapidly.

The foreign minister in China appears to have more lives than a cat.

All Kentuckians look a good deal alike, after all.

Russia is rushin' things.

THE EVENING NEWSPAPER.

The Newspaper Maker: During the past twenty-four years the greatest advances have been made in the afternoon field. In many cities the morning field has been abandoned in favor of the evening. Statistics show that of the new publication a large majority are published in the evening.

Even a casual glance over any reliable newspaper directory will show that the large circulations are held by the evening newspapers. Where both morning and evening editions are published, it is the morning paper that has become "a mere tender" to the evening edition. This is particularly true of, for instance, the two New York papers of largest circulations.

The prosperity and popularity of evening newspapers has, in fact, caused a material change in the character of the morning newspapers. This character is so marked that advertisers not infrequently elect to use but one class, according to the goods advertised.

The evening newspaper is no longer an experiment. It is an absolute necessity to the demands of the times, and more than divides honors with the morning newspaper.

RUSSIA'S EYE ON INDIA.

Czar's General Staff Instructed as to Invasion of the Orient.

The Leipzig Neueste Nachrichten publishes the following from Odessa: "The Russian general staff and corps officers in Tiflis are lately developing much on the same lines as the German general staff in Berlin and are prosecuting their theoretical studies with great diligence and enthusiasm. There is this difference, however, The Berlin officers master all the military problems in the world, the Russians are confining their studies to the invasion of India. Lectures and discussions are held regularly every week. Sometimes even the commander in chief presides. These discussions are confined entirely to the principle theme—India."

"A short sketch of the last lecture will be of interest. The speaker was Captain Schernansky of the general staff, and the subject of his discourse was 'On The Importance and Significance of the Last English Expedition Against the Hill Tribes on the Northwest Boundary of India.'"

"We Russians have a historical account to settle with England, and we are the next neighbors to the Indian people, consequently we are much interested in all that happens on the other side of our central Asian boundary," said the speaker. "An event such as the last war on the northwest boundary is worth studying and also demands our closest attention for various reasons. Three points will be sufficient to recommend this matter to your undivided attention: Firstly, to find out the cause of revolt against English sovereignty; secondly, to learn what changes in the situation over the border would be brought about by war. When we have thoroughly studied these points, we will know what changes we will have to make in our plans in case that we shall have to conduct operations in this region. Thirdly—and this is the most important point of all—we must study the fighting qualities of the Indo-British troops and also the efficiency of the natives for a campaign. We will have to meet these forces when the time comes for settling our historical account with England."

"Similar lectures and debates are being held at the great military port of Tashkent."

OLD MONITORS AS TARGETS.

Those at League Island Navy Yard Likely to Be Put to This Use.

It is very likely that eight old iron monitors now taking up space in the back channel at the League Island navy yard may be used as targets in the near future to test the effectiveness of new guns and projectiles which the government has adopted since the close of the war with Spain, says a Philadelphia dispatch to the New York Times. The monitors are of no use, and it is argued in naval circles that they would serve a better purpose as targets than by rusting away at the navy yard. Admiral Casey in speaking of these now obsolete fighting craft which were once the terrors of the sea said:

"The old boats are absolutely of no use to the government. In the first place, they have been out of date for several years, and most of them are not seaworthy. They have been lying here simply taking up room since early in the eighties, and to try to fit them for navy use now would be a waste of money and time. We sold a few of them not long ago to junk dealers to get them out of the way."

"But as targets the old monitors would serve the purpose excellently. Most of them are of exceptionally low build, and their turrets alone are visible from any distance. All of them are strongly put together, and it would take the very best aimed shots of any kind to break them to pieces."

Pilgrimage to Grave.

For over forty years Alfred de Musset's disciples have made an annual pilgrimage to his tomb at Pere-Lachaise, in the beginning of "Le Joli Mois de Mai." The willow tree which stands close to his grave—the "light shade" he so pathetically requested—was brought from South America by a poet, who undertook the task in order to fulfill the desire of De Musset, whose works he revered. The poet's name is Hippolyte Escasuba, and the tree came from Parana.

Counties Named for Presidents.

In the United States are 212 counties named after presidents. Every president except Arthur and McKinley is in the list. There are thirty-one Washington counties and one Hayes county. Next of the extremes are Jefferson twenty and Fillmore and Tyler two each; Jackson, twenty-two, and Buchanan and Cleveland three each.

THEY WILL NOTIFY WOOLLEY TONIGHT

Prohibition Candidate for the Presidency to be Formally Informed at Chicago.

Chicago, July 20.—John G. Woolley, the prohibition candidate for the presidency of the United States, will receive official notification of his nomination this evening at Central Music hall. Stewart, Chicago; Dr. S. C. Swallow, Harrisburg, Pa.; Hale Johnson, Newton, Illinois, and E. W. Chaffin, Waukesha, Wis. Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the national committee, will preside at the meeting. GOOD RACING AT DETROIT

Five Hests Trottled in Better Than 2:10—One on McHenry

The racing at Detroit yesterday was of the highest order, the improved condition of the track giving the horses an opportunity to trot up to their class. The 2:10 trot was generally conceded to Gayton as McHenry was to drive him, but it proved easy for Dare Devil, who trotted the winning heats below 2:10. In fact Gayton was beaten in the race by Charley Herr driven by Johnny Kelly.

No doubt, next to winning the race, it afforded Kelly the greatest satisfaction to beat Gayton as he is a member of the Butler stable. As this was Charley Herr's first start he trotted an excellent race and should be a good horse at Cleveland next week. The winner, Dare Devil, is a son of Mambrino King. "The handiest horse in the world." Dare Devil is undoubtedly the handiest, as he is also among the fastest horses on the turf, with fore legs tipped with white. The Hamils refused a princely sum for him offered by a foreign buyer.

Carelessness in winning a heat before the wire is passed, cost McHenry the loss of a heat and second money in 2:06 class pace. In the second heat McHenry had the heat won easy, but just at the wire Ben Walker with Prince Alert came with a rush caught Mack a napping and beat him by an eye lash. Mack has nipped many a sleeper himself at the wire but this is the first time we have known of his being attacked with a grand stand paralysis.

Willis Foote won the 2:08 trot with "John Nolan," a horse that has been a very successful winner of larger stakes besides bringing considerable discomfiture to Foote who was fined $500 for not driving to win in the first heats of his race at Louisville last season. Foote had to pay the $500 before he could start at Detroit. He proposes to contest the fine in the courts.

The fine was really unwarranted and unjust.

CONFESSED A CRIME OF 13 YEARS AGO

CONSCIENCE MAKES A PENITENT OF A HORSE THIEF.

Ed. Coughlin, Who Stole a Horse at Beloit Many Years Ago, Delivers Himself Up to the Authorities—Looked Like a Pipe Dream, But It Is Only the Truth.

Ed Coughlin, aged 38, called at the jail this morning and told Deputy Samuel Brown what the latter considered a "pipe dream," about stealing a horse 13 years ago in Beloit and escaping. Coughlin said his conscience troubled him so bad over the affair that he had concluded to give himself up to the law and accept the penalty for his misdeed. All he asked of the deputy was to allow him to visit the former scene of his deed and then he would return to jail and stand trial for his crime. Mr. Brown thought the man was crazy and allowed him to go on his way to Beloit. But he took the pains to telephone the story to City Marshal Appleby of Beloit and he was informed that the facts were all right, that the man did steal the horse and that the authorities had been looking for him since that time but had never been able to locate him and to hold Coughlin until he could come to Janesville.

Deputy Brown on receipt of the news started for the depot and arrived just as Coughlin was about to board the train for Beloit. Brown put him under arrest and took him to the county jail to await the arrival of Marshal Appleby from Beloit.

Dying Man, Two Corpses and Balloon Wreckage Found by Indians on Hudson Bay.

Fort William, Ont., July 20.—Indians hunting on the east coast of Hudson Bay, many miles north of Fort George, in the early spring, bring back to civilization a story that may give to the world the history of the fate of Andree and his companions.

The last packet from York Factory brought word that Indians who were hunting above Fort George and on the east side of Hudson Bay had found a vast quantity of wreckage, the bodies of two men, and a man in the last stage of the death struggle.

The Indians could not understand the language he spoke, but it was not English. He died while they were there and they returned to their post without bringing away any evidence of the strange occurrence. As the Indians had never seen a balloon, the nature of the wreckage was judged only from the description given by them.

Hudson Bay Company officials are firmly convinced that it is the Andree party and they have sent out men guided by the same Indians to find and bring back evidence to establish the identity of the party, as the Indians assert that books and papers were lying around.

Washington, July 20.—After a stay of two days in the city, during which he had several consultations with his cabinet on the Chinese situation, the president started back to Canton last night, taking the 7:45 express on the Pennsylvania railroad. The president came to the station unattended during the thunder storm. He was met by several members of his cabinet, including Secretary Root and Postmaster General Emory Smith, both of whom had a brief private consultation with him before the train left. General Corbin also was at the station. The president looked well despite the torrid weather.

Canton, O., July 20.—[Special Telegram]—As the president stepped from the train returning from Washington this morning, he was handed Conger's dispatch. He was highly pleased with the news.

THE FIRST VILLAGE UNDER NEW LAW

ORFORDVILLE HAS BEEN INCORPORATED AS ORFORD.

This Is the First Organization of That Kind in Rock County Since the Passage of the Act by the Last State Legislature Regulating Matters of Such Nature.

Orfordville has the distinction of being the first village in Rock county to take advantage of the village law passed by the last legislature and be incorporated. Under this law a body of citizens of any unincorporated village, may upon application to the judge of the circuit court by a petition setting forth the fact, that the village has a sufficient number of residents who desire to have the village incorporated and upon filing a plat of the village and other necessary papers with the register of deeds be by order of the judge of the circuit court, incorporated and enjoy all the privileges extended to any incorporated town.

The village of Orfordville has taken advantage of this course and on June 6 upon petition and filing necessary papers Judge Dunwiddie issued the necessary order, giving Orfordville the distinction of being the first village in Rock county to take advantage of the act.

One of the reasons for changing the name from Orford to Orfordville was to prevent there being mixed with another town named Orford. The mail of the two places was often mislaid, causing considerable trouble.

W. G. Wheeler of this city acted for the village and carried the work to a successful end.

OSTEOPATHY

This new science was given its name because it was, and is today, largely considered that the different bones of the body—being the chief framework—by any displacements, cause a majority of the deformities and the functional disturbances found in disease.

Study and experience has so developed this science as to consider as causes all possible obstructions to the free flow of blood or to the nerve current; be it either a misplaced bone, a contracted muscle, an engorged tissue, or a constricted vessel.

Thus, Osteopathy, like all other true sciences, has outgrown its original conception, and has become so broad and specific as to be applicable to the treatment of all diseases.

Any displacement, disorganization, derangement and consequent disease, is readily recognized, properly diagnosed and mechanically restored to the normal equilibrium of form and function by external adjustment, rather than by internal medication.

DEATH BY THE ELEMENTS.

Five Killed and Many Injured in the Day's Storms.

LIGHTNING STRIKES A CHURCH

Panic During Progress of a Funeral in Ohio—Two Men Killed by Lightning and a Woman and Two Children Drown.

Bucyrus, Ohio, July 20.—During the funeral of John Keller at Chetfield, a few miles north of Bucyrus, lightning struck the church, seriously injuring three persons, shocking twenty-five others and starting a stampede among the horses hitched along the fences outside. The church was crowded to the doors and half the people were knocked down by the shock. Mrs. Simon Shade, who was leaning against one of the pillars of the church, received injuries from which she may die. The lightning struck the chimney, and from there passed to the pillar against which Mrs. Shade was leaning.

Coffin Thrown to the Floor.

The coffin over which services were being read swayed violently and fell to the floor with a crash. The church was only slightly damaged. Mrs. Shade had just arisen from her seat to go forward and view the remains when she was transfixed by a flash of lightning, which was seen to descend from the pillar by which she stood and strike through the trimming of her hat, setting it on fire. As soon as those near her had recovered from the shock they went to her assistance and put out the flames, which had spread from her hat to her clothing. Her face and neck and breast were seared with black lines. Miss Dora Bower, it is thought, is also fatally injured. A young man named George Booker was among those most seriously affected, but he was taken away immediately to his home in the country and cannot be heard from.

Seemed Liked a Ball of Fire.

Persons in the church say the lightning seemed to fall from the ceiling in a ball and before it reached the floor it burst into a multitude of pieces, flying in every direction. Mr. Fred Wise of this city, who was in a remote part of the church, was struck in the thumb, and still retains the blackened mark. No one in the congregation escaped, though most of the injuries are not serious. The effect on the horses outside was disastrous, and many valuable animals were ruined. Some of them could not be made to pull the empty conveyances home, while others seemed to be partly stunned. The damage to the buggies and harness was great. When order was finally restored in the church the funeral services were concluded and a prayer offered by the pastor.

Kills Two in Railway Gang.

Dubuque, Ia., July 20.—Lightning struck a shanty two miles west of Winthrop into which an Illinois Central construction gang had retreated for shelter. The casualties were: Killed—William Fitzgerald, Dyersville, Ia.; Frank Garke, Chicago. Injured—Tony Cook, Charles Cade, N. Flanger, Charles Logan, A. T. Reddy, William Shields, Ed Tenny.

Three Drowned in Sudden Flood.

Mount Pleasant, O., July 20.—Long Run, a town two miles west of this place, was visited by a most severe wind and rain storm. Three lives were lost in the flood that followed. The dead: Mary Barhock, John Lingo, son of Mrs. John Lingo; Mrs. John Lingo.

The rain fell for thirty minutes in a perfect torrent, accompanied by thunder and lightning. The stream of Long Run at the foot of the town empties into Short Creek, near the settlement, and the dwellings of miners line both banks. In less than an hour seventy-five houses in the lowland were flooded. Three houses were carried from their foundations and floated down the stream. A Hungarian woman, Mrs. John Lingo, the wife of a miner, was unable to reach a place of safety. She had stopped to carry out her little son John, but he, too, was swept into the waters and both were drowned. Mary Barhock, 3 years old, was also swept away and drowned. Two county bridges over the streams, one of them recently built, were carried away.

The bodies of the two children were carried almost two miles down stream. The body of the woman had not been found tonight.

Burglars Steal Valuable Gems.

Paris, July 20.—A telegram from Marseilles states that Mme. Louise Mante, sister of Edmond Rostand, the famous dramatist, has been the victim of a serious theft. Burglars broke into her country residence, which was unoccupied, and carried off everything of value which they could lay their hands on. The missing jewelry, valued at 120,000 francs, includes a pearl necklace worth 50,000 francs, and a gold collar set with pearls, valued at 24,000 francs.

Loss by Fire Is Heavy.

GREET THE ENDEAVORERS.

Messages of Encouragement from a Vast Multitude of Christians.

London, July 20.—The special feature of today's session of the World's Christian Endeavor convention was the delivery of messages from churches and laymen. The Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, president of the Wesleyan conference, said he conveyed from 30,000,000 Methodists of Great Britain the desire to form an alliance with every true soldier of Christ. Dr. Parker of the City Temple urged American Christian Endeavorers to nominate Rev. Francis E. Clark and Rev. Charles M. Sheldon for the highest offices in the United States, as Christian men should be at the head of things. The United States Ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, and the archbishop of London sent sympathetic messages.

How She Killed Her Rival.

Edorado, Kan., July 20.—Miss Jessie Morrison, the young woman on trial here for the murder of Mrs. Olin Castle, her successful rival, broke down and wept continually during the day's proceedings. The principal witness was Olin Castle, husband of the murdered woman. He identified the razor with which his wife was killed as one from the stock kept at the Racket store, where he and Miss Morrison had been employed. Mrs. Spangler quoted Jessie Morrison as having said: "I have cut Mrs. Castle to pieces with a razor."

New Steel Trust.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 20.—The operators of steel mills of this section have entered into a combination with a view to freezing the smaller concerns out. It is hoped by reducing the price to a point where the smaller concerns cannot live to get rid of a certain amount of uncontrollable competition, after which the prices, which are getting lower and lower, can be allowed to rise to their normal level, and business can move on unmolested. Such is the plan that came to light here, and the fact that it is not denied by the big iron and steel men is considered an admission that such a state of affairs exists.

New Anti-Toxin Discovered.

Paris, July 20.—A new specific for tuberculosis and cancer has been discovered. The plant from which the cure is brewed is called Kalagua and grows in South America. M. Patin, a Belgian consultant, who is a botanist and explorer, is said to have used Kalagua with success in the treatment of bovine tuberculosis, and Dr. Reestrep has obtained excellent results from its use on his own person. Dr. Stubbart, at the Loomis sanitarium at Liberty, N. Y., and Dr. Wechtold, another American physician, claims to have effected cures of patients whose recovery was despaired of. Kalagua is not poisonous.

Joliet Wire Trust Battle.

Joliet, Ill., July 20.—Judge Dibel granted to C. E. Robinson, as president of the Joliet Wire company, an injunction against E. G. Minnemeyer, E. T. Schuler, Ward B. Sawyer and the Alabama Steel and Wire company, restraining them from interfering with the property of the concern or in any way molesting the officers and employees of the company. The application for an injunction is the result of the battle between two rival directorates of the company, in which the one headed by Minnemeyer has been defeated.

Fierce Fire in California.

Placerville, Cal., July 20.—A great forest fire is raging on the lands of the American River Land and Lumber company twelve miles northwest of this city. The big chute built by the company in 1894 at the terminus of its road to run logs into the south fork of the American river is reported destroyed. The chute was 3,500 feet in length, and was built of large logs. Over 3,000,000 feet of lumber is said to have been used in its construction. The cost of the chute was about $60,000.

200 Vessels in Ice.

Halifax, N. S., July 20.—The steamer Harklaw reports that the Strait of Belle Isle is full of ice as far south as the St. John's bay, the floes extending to within two miles of the land. On the Labrador coast over two hundred vessels are caught in the ice, and their position is dangerous, and mariners fear the worst.

Gold and Smallpox in Klondike.

Vancouver, B. C., July 20.—The steamer Cutch reached Vancouver with $300,000 in gold dust and large sums in drafts—the largest gold shipments for the season from Skaguay. Smallpox has broken out at Dawson.

RHEUMATISM

Is due to an acid poison which gains access to the blood through failure of the proper organs to carry off and keep the system clear of all morbid, effete matter. This poison through the general circulation is deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves, causing the most intense pain.

Mr. J. O. Mailey, 123 W. 13th Street, Indianapolis, Ind., for eighteen months was so terribly afflicted with rheumatism he was unable to feel or dress himself. Doctors said his case was hopeless. He had tried fifty-two prescriptions that friends had given him, without the slightest relief. A few bottles of S. S. S. cured him permanently, and he has never had a rheumatic pain since. ON CANNING AND PRESERVING

SOME TIMELY ADVICE ABOUT PUTTING UP FRUIT FOR WINTER USE.

BY GERTRUDE HALL FORBES.

The warm season brings many discomforts to the energetic housewife, but preserving is that special one which is "the trial" of the season. The average man pities his wife when he sees her preparing for the task before her, but however much sympathy he may offer it is not the half that she deserves.

What wonder that with overripe fruit to combat, with a cross cook to coddle into good nature and the sultry weather itself the wear and tear on the nerves should make the best natured woman a veritable tyrant for the time being.

The man who proudly displays the product of his garden arrayed in glass jars must not object if his wife prides herself on the lines of clear jellies and rich preserves and insists on the season approaches on preserving the same as her mother did before her, to the discomfort of the family because of a day spent in the hot kitchen.

SELECT THE BEST FRUIT FOR CANNING.

Many housekeepers do "take it easy" with canning, doing a little at a time, but for the woman who goes into it to accomplish something this method of canning would be insufferably slow and very unsatisfactory. Several reasons present themselves for the justification of the housewife who insists on "making a day of it" when she does begin, a very important reason being that no sooner does the fruit get to the point where it is plentiful and cheap than its prime passes, and she who has not taken advantage of the day regardless of whether it is washing, ironing or cleaning day has missed her chance.

Another reason for such energy is that it is economical to buy large quantities of fruit instead of a few quarts at a time, and again there is something in "getting through" with the work. That canning has benefited by the advances made in household science, must be acknowledged, and today the work is far less laborious than it was a dozen years ago. One of the recent discoveries made is that fruits, such as grapes, strawberries, peaches and raspberries, do not require cooking at all. Converting people to this new fashioned way of canning is a slow process. Simply wash the fruit well in plenty of cold water; then put it into stone jars. Into two gallons of boiling water dissolve an ounce of compound extract of salt, allow the water to cool, then pour it over the fruit so that all is covered. Those who have tried this easy method of canning declare that it is the only correct one, though to those who have not tried it this method seems as though it could never end otherwise than disastrously.

Whatever course is pursued there are some few preparations which must be made. One of the first steps is to see that plenty of jars and glasses have been prepared for the reception of the fruit. All receptacles should be well washed in scalding water and thoroughly rinsed in fresh cold water to remove any odor from previous use. Old rubbers should never be used in canning, for air is bound to get in, with the result that the fruit soon spoils. Covers should be carefully fitted and especial care taken to see that the edges do not bend up and away from the glass. Frequently old covers have dents and nicks along the edges. Such covers should never be used where there is the least danger of fermentation. They will answer for jams and jellies.

In filling jars with hot preserves it is necessary to first stand the jars into a pan of cold water on the stove and then gradually bring the water to the boiling point. The covers should also be placed in boiling water before they are screwed on to the jars. In the case of jellies which are not boiling hot a silver spoon placed in the jar will keep it from cracking.

Porcelain lined kettles are the best for preserving. Where these are not conveniently had granite ware will answer, though the granite is preferable for the reason that with them there is less danger of scorching. Iron, brass, copper or tin cooking utensils should be avoided.

Daily experiments prove the fallacy of the old recipes which invariably demanded pound for pound of fruit and sugar. For canning the proportion of sugar has been reduced, until now the general rule is six ounces of sugar to a pound of fruit. Of course this is for fruits that are used for pies and like dishes. Strawberries, blackberries, cherries and grapes require only six ounces of sugar. Quinces and rhubarb need about ten ounces, and pineapple requires five ounces or less, accordingly as you prefer it very sweet or only medium sweet. Even in preserving, and jelly making old fashioned rules call for more sugar than is really palatable, and the quantity is being reduced every year.

Some persons still insist on first cooking fruits and then packing them in jars. This method involves a great deal of unnecessary labor and is no better than the cold packing process. To cold pack prepare the fruit as you would for cooking and pack into the jars, crowding it down as tightly as possible. Fill the jars with cold water and the necessary amount of sugar. Screw on the tops. Have a wash boiler or some kettle that will serve the same purpose and loosely fit into it a board having a number of perforations in it. Stand the jars on the board, fill the boiler with cold water so that the tops of the jars are under cover, bring gradually to a boil and keep boiling 15 to 40 minutes, according to the nature of the fruit, some requiring more and others less cooking.

Fruit canned in this way will retain its shape. While the jars are still hot the covers should be twisted tightly and again when the fruit is cold. If the rubbers and tops are in good condition, this sort of canning will keep indefinitely. Tomatoes intended for soups and gravies need only to be washed and cut into pieces and then cold packed, but those which are to be used without previously straining should first be blanched, then canned in the same way. Peaches are especially fine when cold packed.

Fruit for jellies should first be carefully washed and then all the imperfections removed. Fruits like apples require a little water to stew in when making jelly. Berries quickly supply their own liquor when heated. Cook until tender. Use a wooden spoon when mashing the fruit and then turn it into a jelly bag.

The quickest way is to press the jelly through the bag, though the clearest jelly is made by allowing it to drip through of itself. This requires about 24 hours. If the first method is followed, care must be taken not to press any of the pulp through the bag to cloud the jelly. Measure the juice. For currant jelly allow three-fourths of a pound of sugar to each pint of juice. The sugar should be heated in the oven and then added to the juice after it has been boiling 20 minutes. After the sugar has been added boil until it jellies. Test by dropping a little on a cold saucer. When the jelly has been made and poured into glasses, it should be placed in the sun and allowed to remain there a couple of days to dry. A cover must be put over it to protect it from the dust. Some cooks place a piece of paraffin on the jelly while it is still hot, which spreads out over the top and hardens into a covering. The same paraffin may be used repeatedly.

SET JELLY GLASSES IN THE SUN.

season after season. Another way is to cover with a piece of paper cut to fit the glass, the paper wet with alcohol and then sealed securely from the air. Only very ripe fruit should be selected for marmalade. Fruits that have cores should be cut into pieces. Place in a kettle with just enough water to cover the bottom and stew until tender. Put the fruit through a sieve to remove the skins and pits, add the sugar and boil fully half an hour longer, stirring constantly. Just before removing from the stove add any desired spices. When cold, marmalade should be stiff enough to stand by itself.

The finest specimens of all fruits should be canned or preserved. Those which are not so good will answer for marmalade, and the pits and parings make fine jelly.

Use only the best white sugar. Put the fruits into tumblers or small jars and thus avoid disturbing a larger quantity than is required.

DIE OF YELLOW FEVER.

Sixteen Persons Succumb to the Disease in Havana.

Havana, July 20.—So far this month there have been forty-five cases of yellow fever here and sixteen deaths. Ten of the sufferers, however, were attacked in June. Surgeon Major Gorgas anticipates about twenty-five civilian deaths this month, which has been the average for July for the past ten years. Nearly all the cases have been Spaniards who recently arrived. Major Gorgas regards the situation as perfectly natural, owing to the immense immigration. He instances December, 1899, in which month there were far more deaths than usual, owing to the Spanish immigration, which was unusual that month. The cases are fairly well confined to the old part of the city. That part of the old town near the navy yard where there were formerly many cases is now, however, free of the disease.

Dump Trainload of Bananas.

Nashville, Tenn., July 20.—Following telegraphic instructions from the Mobile headquarters of the American banana trust, twenty-nine cars, an entire trainload, of extra fancy Bluefields bananas were dumped along the right-of-way of the Louisville & Nashville railroad east of this city. The fruit was in the best of condition and was dumped only because it was considered that the continued heavy shipments from Mobile would glut the northern markets and cause a drop in the price of the fruit. Since May 1 more than 100 cars of fine bananas have been dumped in the vicinity of this city.

Powder Magazine Explodes.

Nevada City, Cal., July 20.—A powder magazine belonging to George E. Turner and situated near the Reward mine, about two miles from this town, exploded, tearing a hole forty feet deep in the earth. It is not yet known whether there has been any loss of life, and the property damaged has not been estimated. The remains of the powder house took fire and every effort was made to prevent the flames from reaching the big magazine of the Lake Shore company, which is only one hundred yards distant.

"Big Oil" Strike in Indiana.

Medaryville, Ind., July 20.—The Byrd syndicate has completed a well here that produced oil at the rate of 240 barrels a day until shut off. This is one of 100 wells drilled here during the past six months, all of which are good producers, but this well opens up new possibilities for this field, which is only seventy-five miles from Chicago.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by Smith's Pharmacy, next to postoffice. Kodak agents.

Carrying Coals to Newmarket.
Philadelphia, Pa., July 20.—The first cargo of Pennsylvania soft coal ever sent from this city to London will leave here soon on the British steamship Queenswood. It is said that only two other cargoes have ever been shipped to London from this country and these were sent from Norfolk. Unusual importance, it is said, in coal circles, attaches to the present shipment because the coal is to be used as fuel by English railroads.

The Marriage Problem

"How to be happy though married," has been entirely solved to the satisfaction of hundreds of thousands of women. There can be no happiness without health. The general health of woman is dependent on the local health of the delicate womanly organs. When there are debilitating drains, or inflammation, ulceration or female weakness, happiness in marriage is practically impossible. A host of happy wives testify that the secret of happiness in marriage is found in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It dries the drains, heals ulceration and inflammation and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Mrs. Anna Willy, (Michigan House), Northville, Spink Co., S. Dak., writes: "I am enjoying good health, thanks to your kind advice and valuable remedies. I suffered very much with female weakness and other ailments for more than two years, when I wrote to you for advice. After carefully following your advice and taking six bottles each of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' I am now a well and happy woman."

Women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

McNAMARA.

Broken Lot Sale.

It has been our custom, after the Fourth of July, to go with a determination to clean up all remaining summer styles. We found it the most paying, rather than have accumulations to carry over. We have arranged in different lots, in both men's and women's, regardless of make, a goodly variety of the best styles to be found anywhere. Cost is all we ask for some; others 'way below. These are mostly tans—just what the season calls for.
